Häufige Fehler & Tipps

Present Progressive - Bildung

- Richtig: I am playing, She is playing, They are playing
- Fehler: “I is playing” → “I am playing”
- Fehler: “She are playing” → “She is playing”

-ing Formen - Rechtschreibung

Regel 1: Stummes -e fällt weg - make → making (nicht “makeing”) - come → coming (nicht “comeing”) - dance → dancing (nicht “danceing”)

Regel 2: Konsonant nach kurzem Vokal wird verdoppelt - run → running (nicht “runing”) - stop → stopping (nicht “stoping”) - get → getting (nicht “geting”) - sit → sitting (nicht “siting”)

Regel 3: -ie wird zu -y - lie → lying (nicht “lieing”) - die → dying (nicht “dieing”)

Wann Simple Present, wann Present Progressive?

Simple Present: - Gewohnheiten: “She plays tennis every week.” - Allgemeine Wahrheiten: “The sun rises in the east.” - Signalwörter: always, usually, often, sometimes, never, every day

Present Progressive: - Jetzt gerade: “Look! She is playing tennis.” - Feste Zukunftspläne: “We are going to London next week.” - Signalwörter: now, right now, at the moment, Look!, Listen!, next week/month

Verben, die NICHT im Present Progressive stehen

Diese Verben beschreiben Zustände, keine Handlungen: - like, love, hate, want, need, know, understand, believe, think (= glauben)

“I am liking ice cream” → “I like ice cream” “She is knowing the answer” → “She knows the answer”
